Another point, of which there was not much doubt before, is now settled, to wit: That the Southern whigs will not sustain any candidate, as the nominee, of this anti-slavery-free-soil faction. It is an adequate objection to Gen. Scott, as a candidate for the Presidency, that those who support him, and have brought him forward, are the opponents of all measures for suppressing the agitation of the slavery question.

At the caucus of the whigs of the House, at the beginning of the season it was claimed that they were, as a body, for the sompromise. REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET, FOR THE WEEK ENDING APRIL 15, 1852. REMARKS.—The water courses are yet low, and the receipts Gaiters and Jenny Lind Buskins, of the latest style.

of produce from above tide-way has been remarkably light during the past week. BACON-The market is better supplied, and prices remain firm. See table.

BEEF CATTLE.-We have no change to note in the price of Beef Cattle Corron.-We hear of nothing doing in this article. Conn-Sales of some 2000 bushels, in first part of this week, at 62 cents, cash. The stock in store is about fair .-Meal sells at quotations, as it arrives. Coffee-Sales from store at quotations, in lots to suit purchasers. See table.

FLOUR-Sales of 100 bbls., received from Boston, at $4 75 $5 25 per bbl. The stock in market is more abundant than at last report. For prices, in lots to suit, see table. HAY .- Small sales Eastern hay at $1 125 per 100 lbs., 50 do. do. at 92k, 97 do. at auction, at 87k to 90 cts, and 250 bales at 874 cents per 100 lbs. LIME.-None received this week.

LUMBER.—Further sales of flooring boards at $12 a $12h per M. Wide boards $7, and scantling at $5 per M. Liquous -Our quotations for liquors must be considered as nominal. The sales being generally in a small way to suit dealers. See table. Molasses-None received this week, and none in first

FISH-Generally scearce. Mullets are worth $5. Mackeral No. 1 $12 for whole, and $6 50 for half bbls., No. 3 $6 and in the Northern markets, and the small receipts here, have caused the price to advance fully 15 cents per barrel in this market during the last 4 or 5 days. The sales have been as follows, as near as we can come at them:

Friday..... 140 bbls., at $2 40 $1 40 Saturday ....... 923 " 2 50 a 2 55 1 50 a 1 55 Tuesday...... 53 " 2 50 1 50 " ...... 25 " new virgin dip at $3 50 Wednesday ..... 23 " 2 50 1 50

There have been no sales this morning, and but very little on the market. The market closed yesterday evening at highest figures, with considerable firmness. Spirits Turpentine has been fluctuating considerably, though mostly with an upward tendency. On Friday morning and Thursday evening 230 bbls. changed hands at 33 cents. On Friday evening 50 bbls. at 34c.; on Monday evening there were and Provisions, at wholesale—and to carry on a General small sales made on secret terms, understood to be over Commission Business. 35 cents, as that price was freely offered and refused on Tuesday; -50 bbls. were, however, taken on the latter day, but we have been unable to get at the price. Rasin. -Sales P. K. Dickinson, Esq., of about 1,450 barrels during the week; ordinary No. 2 at Poppe & Co., 95 cents, and No. 3 at 90 cents per bbl. for large sized bbls. JUST RECEIVED, per schr. Era, from Baltimore. 50 bags Rio Coffee; 10 Hhds assorted Sugars. For sale cheap.

OWEN HOLMES.

Tar.—Receipts very light, and price advanced. Sales of 90 bbls. at $1 65—and 290 do. at $1 70 per bbl.

LAED.—Stock in retailers' hands fair. Small sales to the trade at 11 a 112 cents per lb. PEAS-We hear of no whole sale transactions. Stock of Cow Peas in store not very heavy, a nd retailing at 90c. per PORK-The stock is light, and quotations high, with sales in lots to suit consumers. Poultry-This market has been but scantly supplied late-fined to dealers for home consumption. SALT-No arrivals this week. SHINGLES-Further sales of Common Cypress Shingles during the week at $2 50 per M. TIMBER-The receipts of Timber continue light, and the sales foot up but a very small number of rafts. We refer to our table for prices.

FREIGHT—The rates for coastwise freight, continue at about the same they were quoted this day week. See table.

CHARLESTON, April 14 -Cotton-There was a good den and for this article yesterday, the transactions at the close of business having reached fully 2,100 bales. We close of business having reached fully 2,100 bates. We quote prices ranging at from 6 to Sic, according to quality.

Grain—Corn is of dull sale, owing to the receipts having of late exceeded the demand. We quote the current rates of Virginia and North Carolina, from 66 a 67, extra prime white quality upwards. Sales of Western in Bags, are made to arrive at 72 a 73 cts. per bushel of 56 lb., and after arrival at 72 a 73 cts. per bushel of 56 lb., and after arrival at 82 commences.
